Verona-Based JSD Professional Services, Inc. Merges with Minnesota Firm Stoeckel Jahner Land Surveying

March 8, 2024 – Verona-based JSD Professional Services, Inc. is thrilled to share they have joined forces with Stoeckel Jahner Land Surveying, a company out of Alexandria, MN.

This strategic partnership between JSD and Stoeckel Jahner gives JSD its 7th office location, and its first opportunity to enter a new market, providing existing clients with an expanded footprint into Minnesota. Joining forces will also open doors with new clients for JSD, including within the ever-booming Minneapolis/St. Paul area as well as North and South Dakota.

Founded in 1978, Stoeckel Jahner offers land surveying services, while JSD also offers land surveying in addition to civil engineering, landscape architecture, development services and planning. Both companies will continue serving under their current firm name, with plans to transition to the JSD designation at a later date. The intent of the acquisition is to hire additional staff to provide JSD's core services (engineering, landscape architecture, planning) from this Minnesota office.

“We are extremely excited to partner with Stoeckel & Jahner, as I knew the day we met their team it was going to be a great fit,” said Dave Jenkins, Chief Executive Officer of JSD. “Our two teams partnering will only strengthen the resources we have now and in the future.” Mark Jahner, President of Stoeckel & Jahner, also shared his excitement on the joint venture. “This is a fantastic opportunity for us to grow and expand our services as we bring even more value to our clients, and simply open doors to new possibilities.”

JSD Professional Services carries a nationwide portfolio with its multiple disciplines, headquartered in its Madison Regional Office, located in Verona, WI. In addition, the firm has regional offices located across three states: Milwaukee, Wausau, and Appleton, WI; Chicago, IL and Coeur d’Alene, Idaho. Stoeckel Jahner is located in Alexandria, MN.

Sunbelt Business Advisors team members Andy Schwandt and Clayton Wendt facilitated the transaction.
